

Cooking School

Explore the local Khmer Cuisine

If you find the local Khmer cuisine delicious and are interested in learning the secrets behind how to prepare and cook it, joining Le Tigre de Papiers cooking demonstration is a good idea. The day starts with a visit to old market accompanied with your chef and teacher to buy and get an introduction about the different ingredients. This follows with a cooking class where you prepare your own meal using local recipes. Finally you will get to enjoy your own prepared Khmer lunch.

Practical Information

Le Tigre de Papiers cooking school also supports Salabai restaurant school created in 2002 for disadvantaged young Cambodians.

The program starts at 10.00am onwards until 04.00pm

You will need to book in advance.

How to get there

This all takes place in central Siem Reap and is reachable by a short walk. Bicycle, moto or tuk-tuk.
